

In Loving Memory
Rose Marie Bibler

Rose Marie Bruun was born to Fred and Olive (Puffer) Bruun on Oct. 26, 1923 near Appam, ND. She was baptized and confirmed at Bethany Lutheran Church in Appam. She attended elementary school at the Appam School and graduated from Alamo High School in 1941. After graduation she went to work for the Appam Elevator Company.

On May 16, 1942 Rose was united in marriage to Charlie A. Bibler in Sidney, MT. After Charlie returned from the service they purchased land in Twelve Mile Township where they established their home. Together they resided on the C/X ranch until 1997 when Charlie passed away. Rose continued to live on the ranch until her death.

She was a member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church. She served as a member of their WELCA. She was also a long time member of the Stony Creek Homemakers and rarely missed a meeting. She enjoyed gardening and tending to her flowers and the yard. She loved to be outdoors and anything to do with cattle. She enjoyed quilting and made many quilts for her family, friends and Lutheran Relief.

Rose Marie is survived by her daughter, Jeraldine Thompson of Williston, ND; son, Charles V. (Donna) Bibler of Williston, ND; grandsons, Flint Bibler of Williston, ND and Brent (Kathy) Bibler of Lewistown, MT; great-granddaughter, Keeley Rose Bibler; step-granddaughter, Lori (Terry) Holleman of Kenai, AK; sister, Adeline Thoring of Bemidji, MN; brother, George Bruun of Lewistown, MT; sister-in-law, Virginia Bruun of Pinewood, MN; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Olive Bruun; her husband, Charlie; brothers, Luther and Fred Bruun; and sisters, Ruth Rongstad, Clara Halvorson, June Bibler and Ida Busta.

In Memory Of Rose Marie Bibler

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death.....

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.
