

Betty "Dolly" Andrea Johnston was born on April 8, 1936 to Andrew and Leva (Thompson) Johnston on the family farm north of Watford City. She grew up playing in the rock cliffs on the Johnston Ranch with her brothers and sister. She attended Signal School through the eighth grade and then moved to Columbia Falls, MT.

On May 27, 1956 she married George Zingleman, in the Garden Lutheran Church. They moved to Columbia Fall, MT and made their home there until 1979. While they lived in Columbia Falls, she enjoyed the Rocky Mountain Saddle Club and the Women of the Moose Lodge. While they lived in Montana, their two daughters were born; Monte and Dawn.

In 1979, they moved back to Watford City and made their home north of Watford City. Dolly and George enjoyed playing cards, dancing and traveling with the Long X Wagon Train. George passed away on August 25, 1997 and Dolly continued living in the family home until August, 2010 at which time she moved into town.

Dolly always enjoyed a good cup of coffee at home or at the One Stop, a great game of pinochle, dancing and country western music. She taught her grandchildren how to play cards, shoot a BB gun, and fish. Her sassy spirit and love of the western way of life will be sorely missed.

Dolly passed away March 19, 2013 at her home in Watford City.

Dolly is survived by her daughters: Monte (Geoff) Gaukler, Grand Forks and Dawn Pietron, Kalispell, MT. Her grandchildren: Danika, Keegan, Dawson, Megan, Madison, and Reagan. Her brothers; Jim (Elva Lou) Johnston (Grassy Butte), Ted (Janice) Johnston (Trenton), Punk (Phyllis) Ellingson (Fairbanks, AK), and Babe (Rob) Olson, Williston, ND. She is also survived by many caring nieces and nephews.

Dolly is preceded in death by: her husband, George; her mother Leva; father Andrew; step-father Elmer Ellingson, and brother Carroll.

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

I found a penny today
Just laying on the ground
But it's not just a penny
This little coin I found.

Found pennies come from Heaven
That's what someone's told to me
They said Angels toss them down
For all the world to see.

When an Angel misses you
They toss a penny down
Sometimes just to cheer you up
And make a smile out of a frown.

So don't pass by that penny
When you're feeling blue
It may be a penny from Heaven
That an Angel's tossed to you.
