

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth

over, Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever....

FOOTPRINTS In Loving Memory CELEBRATING A LIFE

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Erna was born August 31, 1927 at Golden Valley, ND to parents John and Magdalena (Meissel) Kittler. She attended school in Golden Valley and later earned her GED diploma. She was baptized into the Christian faith serving her Lord and Master until her death. On October 21, 1945 she was united in marriage to Art Zeiszler in Golden Valley, ND. They lived on a farm until 1948 when they moved to Beulah, ND. In 1959 they moved to Sidney, MT to make their home. To this union, two daughters were born, Carolyn and Janet. In 1961, Erna started working at the Community Memorial Hospital where she enjoyed taking care of her patients that needed assistance; she also worked in central supply and surgery for altogether 28 years retiring in 1989 due to ill health.

Erna was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church where she sang in the choir, was active in the Women's Missionary League quilting. She also enjoyed serving on altar duty. Erna served as treasurer and later president of the Women's Missionary League. But most of all she loved to read, study, and meditate in her bible. She dearly loved her Lord and Savior.

Erna volunteered at the hospital gift shop for many years. She loved music, played the piano and accordion. Art and Erna loved to entertain and sing at the Sidney Extended Care with Helen Sturgis, her dearest friend. She was dearly loved by her husband, children, son-in-law, and her grandchildren.

Erna died on Saturday evening, December 30, 2017, at the Billings Health and Rehabilitation Center in Billings, MT.

Erna is survived by: her daughters, Carolyn (Dick) Dye, Billings, MT and Janet Lorenz, Billings, MT; her grandchildren, Darren (Charlie) Dye, Barbara Ferns, David (Kathren) Lorenz, and Yvonne (Daniel) Thornberg; her 12 great grandchildren; and 1 great great grandchild.

Erna was preceded in death by: her husband, Art Zeiszler; her parents; two sisters; three brothers; and one great-great grandchild.
