

Doug was born October 19, 1961 in Williston, ND to Art and JoAnn Stevens. He grew up with his five siblings in Trenton, ND where he graduated in 1979.

After high school he jumped right into his skills as a mechanic and started his career at Bomac Drilling in 1979. He then spent twenty-two years at Oneok and the last seven years he spent traveling the country with ECOAFS as a Bi-fuel diesel technician.

During Doug's younger adult years, he loved watching his little brother, Darwin race motocross and was his biggest supporter. He would travel the country to watch him compete. Doug was an integral part of Darwin's motocross career making sure he had a motorcycle to ride.

Doug had a strong love of family. He would spend many hours out at the family farm tending to its aging house and property. He made sure to leave a remarkable legacy for his children and grandchildren to enjoy long after he is gone. He loved every moment spent with his two daughters; Amanda and Alexa, and his three grandchildren; Keegan, Kamryn and Avery. They were all the light of his life. Whatever he was doing, where ever he was at, if they needed anything he would drop everything to be there for them. Every morning he was in town, Doug would make special trips to get coffee and chocolate milk for his family.

Doug enjoyed building his Budweiser trophies for anyone who would ask, and for his golf tournaments and parties he took so much pride in organizing. His favorite pastimes were golfing, nascar racing and watching Bison football.

He loved to print birthday cards and fun pictures of his friend's children, graduation pictures, reunion pictures and refrigerator magnets.

Many people called Doug by his nickname, Chez. While you may all wonder where it came from, it is best left unexplained.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Art and JoAnn Stevens and his buddy Kevin Corcoran.

Doug leaves behind his two daughters, Amanda (Steven) Simard and Alexa Stevens; his three grandchildren; Keegan, Kamryn and Avery; three brothers, David (Kathy), Dennis (Sandee) and Darwin (Debbie); a sister, DeEtta (Laurel) and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Doug also leaves behind his best friend, Troy Bakken who was like a brother to him and countless number of friends.

"Chez"

There was a TIME so many year's ago
A strong white haired woman was doing her chores
While a spirited young man would climb my walls and swing from my doors
There was a TIME so many harvests before
My reason and purpose was all so clear
I was shelter and protection for all that needed me here
The TIME and seasons have not been kind
My once mighty structure stood straight and tall
And now crooked and weak I fear I may fall
Most people say it's TIME for me to go
Who am I to say if it is wrong or right
Until that day I will stand here alone like a comet in the night
The TIME for me to go is drawing near
I sure do miss that young man that swung from my door
Obviously God needed him more
