

Olive Barbara Earley was born January 25, 1912 to Christ and Nellie (Forthun) Dahl at Straud, North Dakota. She was raised on the family farm north of Watford City and attended school at Schafer, finishing her schooling at Tollefson School in 1927.

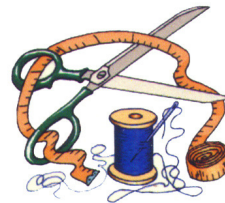

On January 2, 1941 Olive was united in marriage to Walter Earley at Sidney, Montana. They lived on a farm south of Watford City until Olive's brother was killed in WWII. At that time the couple moved to her family's farm where they lived until Walter's death in 1979.

Olive was a member of First Lutheran Church, and the Ladies Aid. She enjoyed sewing, knitting and crocheting.

She is survived by her son, Wallace Earley of Watford City, ND.

Her parents; and her husband, Walter, preceded her in death.

Time flies,

Suns rise,

And shadows fall.

Let time go by.

Love is forever over all.
