

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Best

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

Ormal Edmund "Bud" Hill was born on November 3, 1928 to Orren and Cora Hill in Ray, North Dakota. He attended school in Ray and also in Lakeside, Montana while his father worked on building the Fort Peck Dam.

Bud enlisted in the Army in January 1951 and served in the Korean War, servicing tanks and large equipment. Upon his discharge in 1953, he helped with farming for Wendell Johnson and Kermit Hill. He married Gloria Vooge in Stanley, on July 1, 1957. Bud also worked for Hunt Oil for two years and then for Amerada Hess as a plant operator where he would work for the next 29 years, retiring in March of 1986.

Bud and Gloria celebrated 54 years together, before her passing in July 2011.

Bud enjoyed gardening, playing cards, reading Louis L'Amour books, watching Bison football and New York Yankees baseball. He also enjoyed attending Ray Jay Athletics. His life was centered around his family and friends.

He is survived by his daughter, Julie (Rick) Ingraham of Williston, ND; his son, Lance (Debbie) Hill of Bismarck, ND; grandchildren, Kristin (Joe) Gunderson, Tyler Hill, Kayla Hill, Austin Hill, Pernell Agdeppa, Erica (Mac) VerPlanck and Chauncey Ingraham; great grandchildren, Cassy, Mac, Helena and Carter; sister, Joyce Tong; brother-in-law, Leigh Bolstad and numerous nieces and nephews.

Bud was preceded in death by his parents; beloved wife, Gloria; sisters, Nyla Jean Evans and Opal Bolstad.

*The only thing better than having
you as our Dad,
is our children having you as a Grandpa.*
