

Morris Troy "Butch" McManus, Jr. passed away on May 10, 2018 in his sleep. Born in Lake Charles, Louisiana, he was the son of Morris and Fannie McManus. He attended school in Lake Charles. Butch started working on offshore oil rigs when he was 19, and followed his rigs around the world, before moving to the Williston Basin in the early 80's.

He had the pleasure of working for numerous companies over 50 years and thoroughly enjoyed the people he met. His greatest pride was his family and sharing their accomplishments. Anyone who met Butch knew he loved to tell stories, many times weaving in 3 or 4 more before finishing the first. Butch loved to hunt and fish, taking one of the largest bears in Canada with a bow.

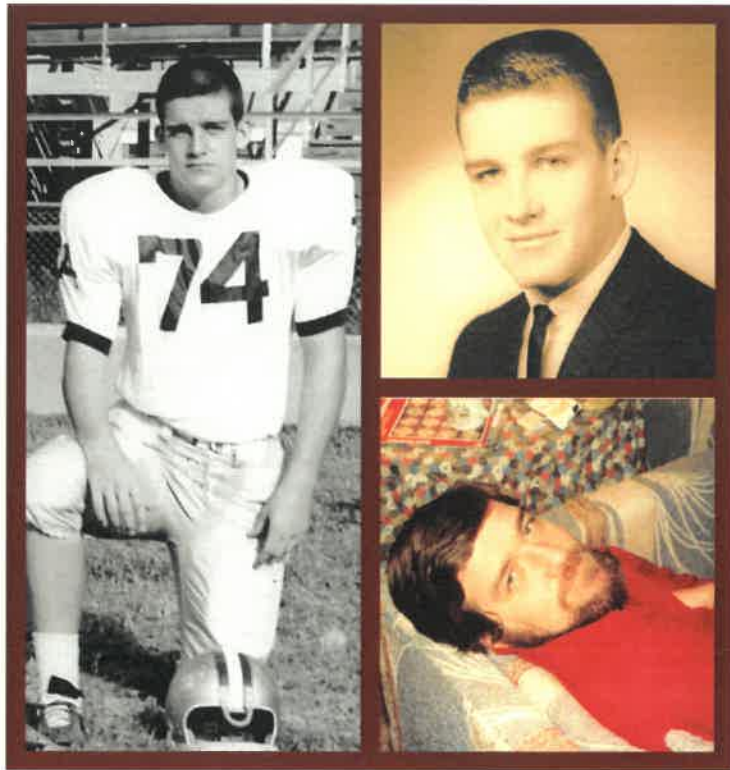

Butch is survived by his wife, MaryBeth; his sons, Jacob (Kaycee) Lee and Bryce Lee, his sister, Martha; his brother, Bob and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; his sister, Cathy and brother-in-law, Edward.
