

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the LORD,
which made Heaven and Earth.
he will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The LORD IS THY KEEPER:
the Lord is thy shade
upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee
from all evil:
He shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth,
and even for evermore.
- Psalm 121

In Loving Memory Of

MYRON W. BROWN

FEBRUARY 2, 1946 - AUGUST 13, 2018

Myron William Brown was born February 2, 1946 to George and Clara (Silvertson) Brown in Watford City, ND . He lived on the family farm and attended Sandstone School.

Myron married Rogene (Jeannie) Uran at New Town, ND on September 16, 1966. To this union 3 children were born. They lived at New Town, Williston, and Killdeer, ND; Denver, CO; Sidney, Culbertson, Glendive, and Plentywood, MT; before they made their home in Dickinson, ND.

Myron was a hardworking man as he worked for KBM, RA Prathers and A&L Workover Rigs, drilling rigs, a cardboard factory making boxes, drove semi, owned M&R Trucking and after he retired he went to work for Northwest Tire.

He enjoyed riding saddle broncs, woodworking, traveling and camping in the Big Horn Mountains in Wyoming, yardwork and gardening. He loved being around children, and they seemed to enjoy spending time with him in return. He accepted people as they were and spent many hours keeping track of his family and friends. He was a man of courage, integrity, and honor. Myron never had any fear, as his injuries he occurred showed how he loved life and lived it to the fullest. He filled his niche and accomplished his tasks, a man who left the world better than he found it, never lacked the appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it, and always gave the best he had. His greatest pride were his grandchildren and great granddaughter.

Survivors include Rogene (Jeannie) Brown, Dickinson, ND. Children: Steven, Williston, ND; Kevin (Cathy) Brown, West Fargo, ND; Sheila (Chad) Brown Stoll, West Fargo, ND; Foster child Misty Uran.
