

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven-
A time for sowing,
a time for reaping;
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything beautiful in its time -
For everything You do remains forever.

In Loving Memory
Joe Farhart

Born to Boaley & Rosenna Farhart
May 16, 1924 ~ Ross Township, North Dakota

Returned to His Heavenly Father
September 10, 2018, Minot, North Dakota

His Funeral Service
10 am, Saturday, September 15, 2018
American Lutheran Church
Stanley, North Dakota

Officiating
Pastor Jim Hamann

Eulogist
Larry Crowder

Reader's
Chelsey, Jeremy & Justin Landon

Pallbearers
Richard Solberg, Joe Varberg, Byron Varberg
Justin Landon, Jeremy Landon, Lance Hollinger, Brian Hollinger, John Varberg

Honorary Pallbearers
Joe Dobrovolny, Robert Westren, Morris Ludwig,
Joe Juma, Charles Juma, Norman Mell

Music
Elonda Davidson ~ Accompanist

Final Resting Place
Fairview Cemetery ~ Stanley, North Dakota

Arrangements By
Springan Stevenson Funeral Home ~ Stanley, ND

In Loving Memory Of Joe Farhart

5/16/1924

9/10/2018

Joe Farhart was born May 16, 1924 on his parents' farm in Ross Township, North Dakota to Rosenna (Lynch) and Boaley Farhart. He was the second oldest of 11 children. Joe was a product of the Great Depression and worked hard all of his life. He worked in the coal mines in Lignite, ND to earn enough money to buy his farm. He also worked in an automobile factory in Detroit, MI and at an auto body repair shop in Williston, ND. For many years he dug water wells with his good friend and sidekick, Fred Crowder. He was an assessor for Cottonwood Township and was on the board for the Ross Elevator.

On May 30, 1953 Joe married June Elizabeth Nielsen of Racine, Wisconsin. They resided in Williston, North Dakota for two years and then moved to a farm northwest of Stanley in 1955. They had 4 children, Steve, Cathy, Nancy and Linda. They lived on the farm until 1988 when they moved to Minot.

June died in July of 1989. Joe then retired from farming and rented out his cropland. He continued to go to the farm to work on his second passion, restoring old tractors. Over the years that he farmed, Joe raised horses, sheep and cattle and grew mainly durum wheat, oats and barley. He enjoyed playing cards, snowmobiling and hunting with another good friend, Baard Hollinger. He was a farmer until the end, asking everyday this fall if the crops were being combined and how they were doing, along with wanting to know how the hay mowing was going and the rain totals.

Joe was preceded in death by his wife, June; his son, Steven; daughter, Linda Varberg; infant granddaughter, Melissa Marie Landon; his parents; brothers, Al, Moody and Denny and his sisters, Nora Smith, Anne Tharpe and Nedde Pegg.

He is survived by his daughters, Cathy (Greg) Landon, Ryder, ND and Nancy Farhart, Minot, ND; grandchildren, Joseph (Kaela) Varberg, Shawnee, KS; Byron (Kathleen Diedrich) Varberg, Leawood, KS; Justin Landon, Sartell, MN; Jeremy Landon, Minneapolis, MN and Chelsey Landon (Christian Gutierrez), Minneapolis, MN; his brothers, Hap, Laguna Vista, TX; sister, Rita (Frank) Terhune, Bolivar, MO, Ida (John) Brewer, Lakeway, TX and Louise (Jim) Edland, Pilot Point, TX and many nieces and nephews.

Joe had been in hospice care for the last 2 months and passed away on September 10, 2018. The family would like to thank Trinity Hospice for the care they gave to their father.

