Hope Strength

In Loving Memory Of

Elizabeth May Livengood

February 7, 1950 - December 8, 2018

*"A Mothers Love is Forever;
Time, Distance, Hardship....
All Fall Before the Strength of Her Love"*

Ask, and it shall be given you;
SEEK and ye shall find.

Knock
and it shall be opened unto you:

For every one that asketh receiveth;

And he that seeketh findeth;

And to him that knocketh it shall be opened

- Matthew 7:7-8

Elizabeth May Conklin was born to Robert and Alberta (Edwardson) Conklin on February 7, 1950 in Bremerton, Washington. She attended school in Bremerton, Washington, graduating from Bremerton High School in 1969. This is where she would meet her love and future husband, Jimmie Livengood. They would be married June 1, 1971 at Union Gap in Yakima, Washington.

In 1976, Elizabeth baptized into the Mormon faith in Bremerton, Washington at the Latter Day Saints Church; 2nd Ward. She had a strong testimony in her faith in Jesus Christ. Elizabeth's strength and complete devotion would forever guide her in her marriage to Jimmie and raising their three beautiful daughters, Wanda, Tina and Judy.

Elizabeth was the foundation of her family and the glue that kept them all together. Her husband's employment would keep them moving around from North Dakota, Washington and Oregon but she would always be organized, keeping their home spotless and never missing an opportunity to volunteer for all of her children's activities. Elizabeth was a proud daughter, sister, aunt, wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She loved to bake, and it would not be an exaggeration that she would bake dozens of cookies a day. Elizabeth also had a very sentimental side to her as she would keep every card, flower or anything that was made by her family.

One of Elizabeth's favorite pastimes was playing bingo; it was so much fun to her. She enjoyed the excitement of waiting to see if the next number called would give her a win.

Elizabeth's strength and love will be missed dearly by her family and friends.

At the time of Elizabeth's passing she was attending the church of Latter Day Saints; Ward 3 in Williston, North Dakota.

She is preceded in death by her husband; her daughter, Tina; her father and mother and her brother's, Fred Conklin and Allen Conklin. Elizabeth is survived by daughters, Wanda Byrd (Oklahoma) and Judy Etzel (Dickinson, ND) ; grandchildren, Joey Campos (Williston, ND), Brittany Tryon (Dickinson, ND), Karla Martin-Livengood (Washington) and Cara Byrd (Oklahoma); great grandchildren, Aayden Campos (Williston, ND), Jordynn Campos (Williston, ND), Mia Campos (Williston, ND) and precious little one due in April (Williston, ND).
