

Tripp Michael Dahl was born October 18, 2010 in Williston, ND to Dana and Denise (Werre) Dahl, little brother to Coy Quigley Dahl. Tripp was one to do everything on his own time, including arriving a month early to his parents surprise. His strong will and determination touched everyone he came in contact with. He had a way of capturing everyone's heart with his big blue eyes. Tripp HAD NO FEAR! He was "All Boy".

He enjoyed playing outside in his sandbox and going for wagon rides with his big brother, Coy. If it rained outside, Tripp was the first one to find the mud puddle and be covered head to toe in mud. He loved to go fishing and camping at the lake with his family. He was always willing to give his momma a helping hand feeding and taking care of the chickens and horses, or just tinkering in the shop with his dad. Nevertheless, at the end of the day you could always find Tripp snuggled up tight, with binky and blanket, to his best buddy, Cooper.

Tripp is survived by his parents, Dana and Denise Dahl, and brother, Coy of Williston, ND; maternal grandparents, Larry and Rosalie Werre of Surrey, ND; and fraternal grandmother, Darlene Dahl of Williston, ND; maternal great-grandmother, Magdalen Regstad of Minot, ND; aunts and uncles, Darla and Dave Heilman of Tioga, ND, Renee and Al Moody of Bismarck, ND, Michael and Shauna Werre of Minot, ND and Michelle and James Peters of Glenburn, ND; cousins, Andrea, Lynn and Cory Heilman, Jamie Moody, Calob, Kiel and Mason Werre, and Layton, Taylor, Savannah, Riley, and Preston Peters; and of course, his best friend, Cooper.

He was preceded in death by fraternal grandfather, Duane Dahl; maternal great-grandfather, Lloyd K. Regstad; and uncle, Kevin Dahl.

In Loving Memory Of Tripp Michael Dahl

A Child Loaned

"I'll lend you for a little time

A child of Mine." He said.

"For you to love the while he lives

And mourn for when he's dead.

It may be six or seven year

Or twenty-two or three

But will you, till I call him back

Take care of him for Me?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you

And should his stay be brief,

You'll have his lovely memories

As solace for your grief.

I cannot promise he will stay

Since all from Earth return,

But there are lessons taught down there

I want the child to learn.

I've looked this wide world over

In my search for teacher's true,

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,

I have selected you;

Now will you give him all your love,

Nor think the labour vain

Nor hate Me when I come to call

And take him back again?

I fancied that I heard them say,

"Dear Lord, They will be done,

For all the joy Thy child shall bring,

For the risk of grief we'll run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness,

We'll love him while we may,

And for the happiness we've known,

Forever grateful stay.

But should the angels call for him

Much sooner than we planned,

We'll brave the bitter grief that comes

And try to understand."
