In Loving Memory Of

Gregory Dean Rolla

February 13, 1952 - August 3, 2016

In rivers, the water that you touch is the last of what has passed and the first of that which comes; so with present time.

-Leonardo da Vinci

Gregory Dean Rolla was born February 13, 1952 in Watford City, the son of Garvey and Lottie (Frisinger) Rolla. He was raised and educated in Watford City, graduating from Watford City High School in 1970. While in High School, Greg helped his dad farm and ranch and participated in high school wrestling.

Greg later entered the U.S. Army and served overseas in Germany during the Vietnam Conflict. After his discharge, he came back to Watford City and continued to help his dad and the farm and ranch, along with working for Black Hills Trucking. Greg later attended a Water Technician School and moved to Mandan, ND, where he worked for the City of Bismarck in their water department. After his retirement, Greg continued to live in Mandan until his death.

Greg enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening, boating and especially his many dogs.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by one sister, Vici Kallevig of Fromberg, MT, two brothers, Mark (Deborah) Rolla and Steven (Darcie) Rolla both of Watford City along with several nieces and nephews and great-nieces and nephews.
