

Louise Arnold, 62 of Watford City passed away in her home following a two-year battle with cancer.

Louise Ann Pittsley was born January 3, 1958 to Glenn & Betty (Jore) Pittsley in Watford City, ND. She attended Watford City Public School and one semester at Williston State College.

She married David Arnold on February 20, 1976. Following the marriage, they made their home east of Watford City where she resided the rest of her life. David passed away on November 9, 2013.

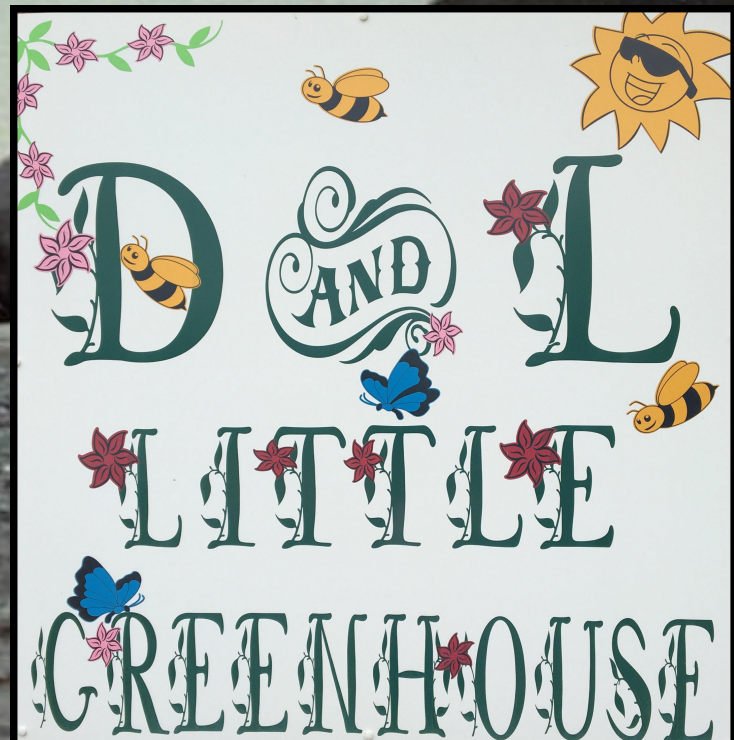

Louise worked at the Coast to Coast Store, operated a craft & consignment store, worked at Mike's Super Valu & the Good Shepherd Nursing Home before finding the job she loved as an aide at the Watford City Elementary School. She worked there for 24 years until her declining health forced her to retire. Louise never had her own children and because of their love of children, David and Louise were foster parents for several years. She loved spending time with the neighborhood children and treated them like her own. Louise was proud of all her nieces and nephews and was especially proud to be godmother to her nephew Tyler Pittsley.

Louise had a love of flowers so in 1986 she opened D & L Little Greenhouse and operated it until this past season. Thanks to some very special friends of hers the greenhouse was able to be open while she was fighting her cancer battle the past two years.

In her spare time, Louise loved fishing, camping, going to yard sales and going to the casino.

Louise is survived by her father Glenn (Rosalie) Pittsley of Bowman, ND. Her brothers Donny Pittsley & Jim (Kristy) Pittsley both of Watford City. Her sisters Karen (Dale) Hagen of Arnegard, ND, Ellen (Jim) Jefferson of Mandan, ND and Nancy (Dennis) Cornwell of Jerome ID. Sisters-in-law Mary Pittsley of Mandan, ND, Sandee Pittsley of Killdeer, ND and Merlita Pittsley of Merced, CA and brother-in law Dwight Norby of Keene, ND. She is survived by several nieces and nephews and two special foster daughters Becky & Betty.

Louise was preceded in death by her husband, her mother, her siblings Della Norby, Leroy Pittsley, David Pittsley and Glenn Pittsley Jr, her beloved dog and best friend Yogi, her grandparents and several aunts, uncles & cousins.

Written for my wonderful friend Louise

*The time has come for me to part
And leave this earthly life.
Forward I must go
And enter my heavenly home.
Filled with love from those gone before.
I leave this bitter pain behind, for in Heaven,
I am renewed with health and strength again.
I give my love to all I leave,
My friends and family.
The place I go will bring me peace.
Smile for the times we've had,
And treasure our precious memories.
The time will come for us to join together
In this wonderful place.*
