

GOD looked around the garden,
 And found an empty space.
 He looked down upon the earth,
 And saw your tired face. He put
His arms around you
 And lifted you to rest.
 God's garden must be beautiful
 For He only takes the BEST.
 He knew that you were weary,
 and He knew that you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never be well on earth again.
 He saw the roads were getting rough,
 and the hills were hard to climb.
 So He closed your weary eyelids,
 and whispered
Peace be Shine.

Donna Mae Kellogg

October 17, 1931 - June 28, 2023

Donna Mae Kellogg was born on October 17, 1931, to Alma Marie (Hystad) and Lars Peter Quinnell at her grandparent's home in a little town in western McKenzie County which is now only a spot on the side of a road. She had two older brothers, Lloyd and Noral (Bud).

The first home Donna remembered living in was in the Bennie Pierre Creek area. She learned early how to stay away from places frequented by rattlesnakes but mice were harder to avoid. After her parents' separation and following the death of her mother, she and her brothers lived with Uncle Hank and Aunt Emma Hystad. Donna continued living with her uncle's family through her junior year in high school. She stayed with the Thomas family her senior year in high school. She worked for Lettie Kellogg the summer before her senior year and after she graduated from Watford City High school in 1949. Donna attended nursing school in Mitchell, SD, from 1951 to 1954 and worked in Sidney, MT, and Williston as well as the Good Shepherd Home in Watford City in the following years.

Donna was united in marriage to Thomas Uhlman Kellogg on October 30, 1955, at the First Baptist Church in Williston, ND. They resided on the Uhlman/Kellogg ranch in northern McKenzie County until 1970 when they purchased the Joe Van Dyke ranch and moved there. Four children were born to them: Terry Thomas, Judy Rae, James Lee and Gene Conrad.

Donna had a love for her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, which saw her through the good and the difficult times. She was a member of the Watford City Wesleyan Church for many years. She enjoyed taking her turn providing special music for services. A highlight of her life was getting baptized in the river Jordan on a once in a lifetime trip to Israel a few years ago.

Donna was a talented seamstress and would sew clothing for her children and grandchildren. She also created some quilts and enjoyed a variety of needlework projects. It was rare to see her without a project in her hands, especially as she made many gifts for her beautiful grandchildren when they began arriving. She enjoyed photography and genealogy, as well, in order to preserve family history.

Donna loved riding horse, helping with the farm and ranch work, and working with the cattle. She rescued animals in need including a porcupine and a raccoon! She enjoyed being outdoors but also spent a lot of time cooking and baking for her family. When living on the Uhlman/Kellogg ranch early in her marriage, she also raised a large garden. She loved plants and flowers and often had a display of them in her home.

Donna and Tom were very involved with the 4-H program when their children were in it and continued to follow some of the grandchildren and great grandchildren as they entered the program. They attended many county and state fairs, 4-H livestock shows and sporting events (basketball, football, gymnastics, volleyball, and hockey). She enjoyed going to her grandchildren's classrooms and telling stories about all the animals that she doctored and raised.

Donna is survived by her children, Terry (Jonilla) Kellogg, Judy (Duane) Jacobson, James (Dawn) Kellogg, and Gene (Eda) Kellogg; 13 grandchildren, Tabitha (Ted) Schuster, Teryl Kellogg, Tamera (Shane) Blowers, Brett (Melissa) Jacobson, Loren Jacobson, Arlen (Chelsea) Jacobson, Letitia Jacobson, Mari (Nathan) Schell, Brenna Kellogg, Kavin, Nevaeh, Alexis and Maria Kellogg; 10 great-grandchildren, Parker, Paige, and Paxton Schuster, Wyatt and Illa Blowers, Harlee and Evan Jacobson, Evelina Jacobson, and Corbyn and Emersyn Schell; her special friend, Deb Kellogg; her half-brother, Tony Quinnell; her sister-in-law, Bonnie Quinnell; as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

Donna was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas; her parents (Alma and Lars); her brothers and sisters-in-law, Lloyd and Sharon Quinnell, Bud and Sandy Quinnell; her half-brothers, Lars Peter Quinnell III and Clayton Quinnell; and her half- Sister, Brenda Quinnell.
