

In Loving Memory Of Sharon Williams

Born to Patrick and Ann (Jatzek) DeVoir
August 16, 1940 ~ Billings, Montana

Returned to Her Heavenly Father
September 21, 2023 ~ Sidney, Montana

Graveside Services

Thursday, September 28, 2023 at 10:00 am
Lambert Cemetery ~ Lambert, Montana
Luncheon to Follow at Fox Lake Center

Officiating

Pastor Alton Hillesland

Music

Becky Carda Sheri Pust

Casketbearers

Freddie Wambolt Amanda Wambolt
Cole Thornton Jana Thornton
Ross Thornton Parker Dean
Sheridan Dean Amelia Williams

Honorary Casketbearers

Sharon's Beloved Friends and Family

Arrangements By

Fulkerson Stevenson Funeral Home ~ Sidney, MT

In Loving Memory Of Sharon Williams August 16, 1940 - September 21, 2023

Sharon A. Williams, 83, of Sidney, Montana passed away Thursday, September 21, 2023 at Sidney Health Center.

Sharon was born August 16, 1940, to Patrick and Ann DeVoir in Billings, Montana. She attended the Catholic Grade School in Sidney and graduated from Sidney High School in 1958. Sharon attended business school in Billings before taking a job at a bank there.

Sharon married her husband Everett in Billings on December 17, 1960. After living in Sidney for a couple years, they made their home at the farm North of Lambert where they raised their three children.

She had many hobbies including crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, reading, gardening, and embroidery – she made countless tablecloths, bedspreads and pillowcases, but her specialty was baby blankets. An avid baker, Sharon’s kids will miss her pies, cakes and cookies, and especially her breadsticks which were constantly fought over. She loved flowers, all the wild ones and any she received or bought for herself. Fresh flowers decorated the home frequently.

Sharon had many adventures in her life: raising her children, selling Avon, cooking school lunches at

Lambert, owning and running the Lambert café, and the highlight the whole family laughs at – selling mini-donuts at the area fairs.

Everett and Sharon attended sporting events for nearly 63 years, including all their children and grandchildren’s games, later following the Montana Grizzlies’ football and basketball. When not busy at games, they enjoyed fishing in the area lakes.

Our mom was a wonderful, loving, and caring person. She was an involved Grandma and Great-Grandma. One thing about Mom is she loved us no matter what. She might not have liked all the choices we made but she had a never ending love.

Sharon is survived by her husband, Everett; her children Kathleen (Russel) of Lambert, Montana, Coleen (Kip) of Sidney, Montana, and Daniel (Sheri) of Sidney, Montana; her siblings Michel (John) DeGroat and Patrick DeVoir Jr.; grandchildren Amanda Wambolt (Freddie), Cole Thornton (Jana), Ross Thornton, Sheridan Dean (Parker), and Amelia Williams; and great-grandchildren Karlee Wambolt, Kyler Wambolt, Cohen Thornton, and Quinn Thornton.

She is preceded in death by her parents Patrick and Ann DeVoir, in-laws Floyd and Evelyn Williams, sister Jean Smith, and brother-in-law Ivan Smith.

*And if I should go before you
Know that part of me still remains...
You will not see me, yet I will
Be there walking beside you.
You will not touch me,
Yet I will live in your heart and memory always.
Have faith that we will one day walk
Hand in hand in eternity.
Until then, live your life for life is good...
And know that I am with you.*

