

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be thankful for our MANY BEAUTIFUL
years
I gave to you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave
to me in HAPPINESS.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your HEART.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, When you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say...

Irene Davidson
March 3, 1934 - March 5, 2024

Irene Josephine Davidson was born on March 3, 1934, in Froid, Montana to Elizabeth (Beeb) and Helmer Hanson. She peacefully passed away March 5th, 2024 in Culbertson, Montana.

Irene's journey began in Froid, where she attended school and embraced a strong work ethic from a young age. She was confirmed in the Froid Lutheran Church, where she found solace and community.

In August 1951, Irene married Vernie L. Davidson in Seattle, Washington, marking the beginning of a lifelong partnership filled with love and shared adventures. Together, they built a life and raised their family across various communities in Montana and Washington before finally settling in Callaway, Minnesota, where they retired after many years of hard work. Their enduring love and commitment saw them through almost 60 years of marriage.

Throughout her life, Irene was known for her unwavering dedication to her family and her community. She was a beloved figure in Callaway, where she worked in various businesses, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all who knew her. Irene's resourcefulness and can-do attitude were evident in every aspect of her life. Whether she was cooking her famous meals, baking, tending to her garden, birdwatching, or cutting a rug on the dance floor as a polka partner, Irene approached everything with enthusiasm and determination. In her later years, she found joy in the simple pleasures of life, spending countless hours immersed in the pages of her favorite books.

Irene is survived by her loving children: Sheri (Bruce) Crain of Froid, Montana; Carol (David) Foltz of Detroit Lakes, Minnesota; Demcy (Sandi) Davidson of Callaway, Minnesota; LaDonna (Brady) Finnicum of Velva, North Dakota; along with 16 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Vernie; her children, Clay A. Davidson, Tammy Wangerin, and infants David and Kelly; her parents, Helmer L. Hanson and Beeb Herling; and her siblings, Ray Hanson, Randy Hanson, Darlene Berg, Joyce Boos, Mervin (Shorty) Hanson and Kae Spotted Bull and all of her brother and sisters-in-law and many nephews and nieces.

Irene's legacy of love, resilience, and kindness will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her. She will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by her family, friends, and the countless lives she touched throughout her remarkable journey.
