

The Father's Hand

*While through this changing world below
I would not choose my path to go;
'Tis Father's hand that leadeth me,
Then O how safe His child must be.*

*Sometimes we walk in sunshine bright,
Sometimes in darkness of the night:
Sometimes the way I cannot see
But Father's hand still leadeth me.*

*Sometimes there seems no way to take,
But Father's hand a way doth make.
Sometimes I hear Him gently say,
"Come follow Me, this is the way."*

*Why should I mind the way I go?
His way is best for me, I know.
He is my strength, my truth, my way,
He is my comfort, rod, and stay.*

*So on we travel hand in hand,
Bound for the heavenly promised land
Always through Eternity,
I'll praise his name for leading me.*

*In Loving Memory Of Florence Katherine Linder
April 5, 1931 -
July 12, 2024*

Florence Katherine (Riegel) Linder was born on April 5, 1931, in Werner, North Dakota to Leo and Louise (Frank) Riegel. She was baptized on May 14, 1931, and Confirmed on July 23, 1944, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Halliday, ND. She graduated from Halliday High School in 1949. She loved being the big sister to her younger siblings, Delores and Loretta.

Florence married Ray Mohl in Halliday on September 27, 1949, and the couple had two sons, Lynn and Barry. The family moved to Sidney, MT in 1955 and tragically lost Lynn in an automobile accident in September of 1967. In 1969, they purchased the Sidney Green House and owned and operated it until 1978. Ray lost his battle with lung cancer and passed away in September of 1982. Barry was later married to Gayle Beckman and together they had Brandon, Florence's only grandchild. Barry passed away from cancer in October of 2005.

Florence married Marvin Linder in 1991 and became the stepmother to stepsons Bill & Bruce Linder and stepdaughter Carla (Tom) Verhasselt. In 1995, she and Marvin began spending winters in Arizona where those newfound friends became her second family. Marvin passed in September of 2004.

Florence was a people person, enjoying conversations with friends and strangers and their various personalities. She received great pleasure in cooking, entertaining, gardening and nature. She traveled to 45 states and enjoyed many island cruises and trips to other countries, learning much about each new place she visited.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and her church family meant much to her. She always felt that the support she received from them and the Sidney community during her many trials was more than anyone could imagine and hope for.

Florence worked for Chad's Furniture as a clerk and bookkeeper for 30 years and as a clerk at John Stockhill Jewelers for 7 years. She was a member of the VFW Auxiliary.

While she slept peacefully, a glorious band of angels came to escort Florence to her heavenly home. She loved the Lord and took comfort in knowing that she would be reunited with her family in Heaven.

Florence is survived by her grandson, Brandon (Erin) Mohl and their two children Leilah & Bayler of Kent, WA; daughter-in-law Gayle Mohl of Missoula, MT; stepson Bill Linder of Sidney, MT; stepdaughter Carla Verhasselt of Sidney, MT and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by the loves of her life, husbands Ray Mohl and Marvin Linder; sons Lynn and Barry; sisters Delores and Loretta and her parents Leo and Louise.
