

- GREAT-GRANDKIDS
- DALTON RENNER
- LEXIE RENNER
- HUNTER COPE
- TAYLYN COPE
- HUDSON COPE
- KADE SNYDER
- JOHN ROGNLIEN
- JAYLEE SNYDER
- JOZI ROGNLIEN
- CHANCE DROSDAL
- GRAYSON YOUNG
- LEXI LAUTENSCHLAGER
- EMILIA TAYLOR
- KOOPER SNYDER
- ZAYNE ROGNLIEN
- SUMMER LAUTENSCHLAGER
- CALLUM DROSDAL
- PIPER TAYLOR
- BRAXTON YOUNG
- PAUL LAUTENSCHLAGER
- BOONE ROGNLIEN
- MAELYNN SNYDER
- BELLAMY THIEL
- SIG LAUTENSCHLAGER
- EVERETT LAUTENSCHLAGER
- ZEBEDIAH ROGNLEIN
- FORD THIEL
- NASH TAYLOR
- KOLLINS THIEL

Grandma

In Loving Memory Of Patricia Jeane Lautenschlager

Born to Royce & Louise Frederick
March 11, 1939 ~ Kenmare, North Dakota

Returned to Her Heavenly Father
July 31, 2024 ~ Minot, North Dakota

Memorial Services
10:00 AM on Monday, August 12, 2024
American Lutheran Church
Stanley, North Dakota

Officiating
Milo Mell

| | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| Urn Bearer | Eulogist |
| Scott Lautenschlager | Steve Lautenschlager |

Honorary Urn Bearers
All of Pat's Grandchildren & Great-Grandchildren

Special Music
"In The Garden" ~ Alan Jackson
"I'll Fly Away" ~ Ty Taylor
"Softly & Tenderly" ~ Alan Jackson

Final Resting Place
Fairview Cemetery

Arrangements By
Springan Stevenson Funeral Home
Stanley, North Dakota

Patricia Jeane Lautenschlager was born on the family farm in Kenmare, ND on March 11, 1939, to Royce and Louise (Parkinson) Frederick. She was the second of five children, growing up alongside her siblings; Shirley, Bob, Butch, and Bonnie. She graduated from Kenmare High School in 1957 and married the love of her life, Paul “Jerome” Lautenschlager, on July 12, 1959, in her hometown. They shared 64 wonderful years of marriage and raised three children; Steve, Scott, and Renae.

Pat developed a love for sewing at a young age. Starting at 16, she quickly became skilled in sewing and alterations. Pat made clothing and many other useful items for herself and her family, extending all the way down to her great-grandkids. She became well-known in her community for creating a wide variety of items, from special occasion dresses to burp cloths. Her talent with an embroidery machine allowed her to craft personalized items, beautiful dish towels, quilts, and baby blankets. Pat enjoyed visiting with both old friends and new customers, always remaining humble about her talents. She often said “I’m not sure if I can do that; I’ll have to take a look at it” but she always found a way to make things work. Pat loved teaching her family members how to sew and was always ready and willing to help with any project, big or small. Her family will forever remember her mantra; “Press and sew, press and sew”.

Pat was always baking, most notably her famous buns. She always had fresh baked goods on the counter for family members who stopped by or friends who came for coffee visits. During holidays, Pat made everyone’s favorite treats and knew exactly what each person liked. She also enjoyed decorating and redecorating her house, frequently changing out comforters and sewing curtains to match. Everything in her home had its place, and nothing was ever out of order. Pat was an exceptional homemaker.

Mother

Pat held various roles throughout her life, including working at the bank in Kenmare, the Sheridan County Sheriff’s Department, and the bank in McClusky. She took several years off to dedicate herself to raising her family and later returned to work in 1979 as the secretary of the American Lutheran Church in Stanley, a role she held until 1986.

Pictured above are granddaughters named after Great Grandma Pat; Piper Adeline-Jeane (Left) and Maelynn Jeane (Right)

Pat is survived by her children; Steve (Brenda) Lautenschlager, Scott Lautenschlager, Renae (Duc) Thiel; her siblings, Shirley Grisel, Bob (Carol) Frederick, Butch (Vivian) Frederick, and Bonnie (Rod) Harris; her grandchildren, Alex (Krista) Lautenschlager, Tyler (Ryan Walter) Lautenschlager, Ben Lautenschlager, Ethan (Mercedes) Lautenschlager, Madison Kjer, Charlie Kjer, Dodie (Dennis) Renner, Kacey Cope (Ryan Young), Tyler (Ashley) Thiel, Shayna (Jared) Rognlien, Jenna (Vernon) Snyder, Kyli (Drew) Drosdal, and Kori (Ty) Taylor; and many well loved great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jerome; her parents, Royce and Lou Frederick; her grandson, Cullen Lautenschlager; and brothers-in-law, Joe Strasser and Pete Grisel.

