

The Chain

We knew little that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, that day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Forever
in our Hearts

Stetson Wayne Raveling was born December 9, 2022, to Shane Jr and Mandy Raveling.

Stetson Wayne was a very loving and playful boy. A few of his favorite things included stealing his mother's coffee in the morning, being outside with his mom and dad, helping his mom clean the house and taking his dad's tools. He loved being out in the garden with his mom and dad or cuddling on the couch watching movies.

Stetson enjoyed playing together with his siblings, especially under a tree in the yard, digging holes with his cars and trucks. Stetson would always steal his dad's hats and walk around with them on, just like his dad. He also loved going on road trips with his mom and grandma.

Stetson was always on the go and moving fast, but when he was tired, he could fall asleep anywhere, anyplace, and in any position.

From the time he was born he would light up a room with his smiles and laughter. Now he is smiling and laughing with God Almighty and will forever be our Guardian Angel.

Stetson went home to be with his heavenly father on Wednesday, August 14, 2024. We will always love you Stetson Wayne!

He is preceded in death by his grandparent Todd Yonnes, great-grandparents Rev Paul and Sally Brannan, great-great-grandparents Casper and Viola Wick, great-aunt Cheryl Knudson, great-uncle Randy Poole, uncle Colton Raveling, and cousins Evan and Ace Baumeister.

Surviving him are his parents, Shane Jr and Mandy Raveling; brothers Ryder, Brody, and Arthur; sister Aspen; grandparents Tami (Dale) Nygaard, Tony Fitzgerald, Robyn Brannan, and Shane Raveling Sr.; great-grandparents Dennis and Linda Wick and Kathleen Vondal; and lots of aunts, uncles and cousins.
